Our Opinion

Greensboro News & Record

Roy Cooper — want him to do. If this sounds very familiar, that's because the play-by-play mirrors the plot lines that have played out in various offices in Congress — and in other state legislatures — since charges against powerful film producer Harvey Weinstein inspired a surge of women to come ...

Editorial: Legislative efforts to give GOP upper hand only gain election confusion

WRAL.com

Roy Cooper, a Democrat, has rightly challenged the law. Even setting aside any legitimate questions as to the very need for the changes, there are significant questions as to whether the legislature acted within its authority and if the laws are constitutional. The state's courts are the appropriate forum to ...
